1. Code of Ethics and Business Conduct

For CGI Partners, officers and directors of CGI.

To the CGI Team

This Code of Ethics and Business Conduct is based on the values and philosophy that have guided CGI successfully since the Company's inception in 1976. It constitutes a unique repository where the combination of CGI policies, guidelines, principles of conduct and best practices have been regrouped under one umbrella document, for the benefit of our CGI Partners, officers and directors.

CGI's operations have grown significantly and now extend worldwide, and our business environment has become increasingly competitive and complex. The scope and pace of our business requires us to make quick and informed decisions, in a manner consistent with our values.

This Code provides guidance - and a global view - for CGI Partners, officers and directors to consistently achieve the professionalism that has earned our Company an enviable reputation among our clients and within our industry. It also provides guidance for CGI directors when acting for the Company.

This Code is not meant to be a complete list of ethics and business conduct covering every eventuality. It highlights situations that CGI Partners, officers and directors may face in their duties and provides the basic principles to guide their actions. CGI recognizes the importance of supporting these individuals as ethical issues arise, and has an open door policy for resolving such issues with integrity.

Upon joining CGI, all CGI Partners, as part of their employment contract, undertake to observe this Code in all aspects of their work. Furthermore, annually, all CGI Partners shall renew such undertaking.

We must always behave responsibly and in line with the Company's core values when working on behalf of CGI for its clients and other stakeholders. By preserving our personal integrity and the professional reputation of CGI, I am confident that together we will succeed in achieving the Company's mission and vision.

Julie Godin	Serge Godin
Executive Chair of the Board	Founder of CGI and Co-Chair of the Board

IMPORTANT NOTE

The CGI Constitution, including the Dream, Vision, Mission, and Values of the CGI Inc. form the fundamental principles of this Code of Ethics and Business Conduct. This Code should therefore be read in conjunction with CGI's Constitution.

1.1. Values, philosophy, vision and mission

Values

CGI has always believed in investing in the future to ensure continued success. From the beginning, the Company has invested in developing a strong corporate culture, based on six core values that reflect its approach to business. These values are quality and partnership, intrapreneurship and sharing, respect, objectivity and integrity, financial strength and corporate social responsibility. These values are at the heart of CGI's success.

They ensure that CGI takes a long-term view on business issues, and builds long-lasting partnerships with its clients.

Philosophy

The success of CGI Inc. and its subsidiaries is based on the knowledge, creativity and commitment of its CGI Partners. CGI ensures this success by recruiting the most qualified people available. CGI Partners share in the risks and rewards of CGI's business as partners of CGI and are committed to its objectives. They take a disciplined approach to their work and constantly strive for excellence to achieve the best results for every client. In exchange, CGI strives to recognize the value of its CGI Partners by offering them a stimulating work environment that fosters their personal and professional development.

Vision

To be a global world class end-to-end IT and business consulting services leader helping our clients succeed.

Mission

To help our clients succeed through outstanding quality, competence and objectivity, providing thought leadership and delivering the best services and solutions to fully satisfy client objectives in information technology, business processes, and management.

In all we do, we are guided by our Dream, living by our Values to foster trusted relationships and meet our commitments now and in the future.

1.2. Purpose and scope of the Code

This Code of Ethics and Business Conduct (the "Code") defines CGI's character and guides the actions and decisions of employees ("CGI Partners"), officers and directors of CGI. Compliance with the Code is essential for many reasons and notably to preserve and enhance CGI's reputation and maximize shareholder value. In keeping with CGI's values, the Code outlines the essential rules and guidelines necessary to preserve CGI's enviable reputation among its clients and within its industry. The Code is not meant to be a complete list of ethics and business conduct covering every eventuality. It highlights situations that CGI Partners, officers and directors may face in their duties. The code is meant to give them a broad and clear understanding of the conduct expected of them, wherever CGI does business. While the specific illustrations are primarily addressed to CGI Partners, they should be read as being equally applicable to the members of CGI's Board of Directors to the extent that they may be applicable in the circumstances.

Should a CGI Partner be confronted with a situation where further guidance is required, the matter should be discussed with the CGI Partner's manager. CGI recognizes its obligation to support its CGI Partners, officers and directors as ethical issues arise.

In addition, third parties such as consultants, agents and suppliers are required to comply with CGI's Third Party Code of Ethics when acting on CGI's behalf. CGI expects any third party acting on CGI's behalf to respect CGI values and high ethical standards of conduct.

The Third Party Code of Ethics is available on our enterprise portal.

1.3. CGI Partner's conduct and behavior

General conduct

Upon joining CGI, CGI Partners, as part of their employment, undertake to observe all principles and obligations under the Code. Furthermore, annually, CGI Partners must renew such undertaking by signing or, where required locally, acknowledging the "Commitment to the Code of Ethics and Business Conduct".

If a CGI Partner ceases to be employed by CGI for any reason, the CGI Partner Commitment specifies which elements continue to apply, namely those related to the confidentiality obligations.

Respect and integrity

All CGI Partners support the Company's philosophy and contribute to CGI's development and good reputation by promoting synergy and teamwork, by expressing their ideas and by adopting the highest standards of service quality and integrity. CGI Partners are its ambassadors. They must always behave responsibly and demonstrate courtesy, honesty, civility and respect for other CGI Partners, for its clients and for its suppliers, and must never do anything that could harm CGI's reputation or that could otherwise bring CGI into disrepute.

Loyalty

CGI Partners are expected to act at all times with diligence and loyalty towards CGI and in such a way as to safeguard CGI's interests. CGI Partners should not act in a way or publicly hold a position that might harm the image or reputation of CGI.

Relations with clients

CGI's services often involve visiting or working at a client's place of business. A CGI Partner working at a client's site must comply with the client's practices and procedures and treat the client's facilities with respect. The CGI Partner must work as efficiently and meticulously as possible and leave the client's premises and property as he or she found them. As well, CGI Partners must use the client's information and systems infrastructures for the sole purpose of the client's contract and protect those infrastructures and information at all times.

CGI Partners may also be required to follow a client's code of conduct, in addition to following CGI's Code. When faced with an incident that occurs on client premises, CGI Partners must promptly notify their manager and/or escalate through proper CGI channels.

Relations with competitors

If a CGI Partner is working with a competitor of CGI on a joint project for a client, the CGI Partner must avoid any situations that could cause conflicts. The CGI Partner must respect the roles that the client has assigned to each party and work as a team in the client's best interests. CGI Partners also have both an ethical and a legal responsibility to portray the Company's competitors fairly and accurately. CGI does not tolerate its CGI Partners using improper means for gathering information about its competitors.

Material and assets

All CGI Partners have a responsibility to protect CGI's assets against loss, theft, abuse and unauthorized use or disposal. If, in the course of his or her work, a CGI Partner is supplied with any property belonging to CGI or to a third party, the CGI Partner must use said property in accordance with CGI's Security and acceptable use policy, and as may otherwise be specified in the binding agreement he or she signed with CGI the CGI Partner must use said property solely for work-related purposes as specified in the binding agreement he or she signed upon joining CGI. More specifically, the CGI Partner must use CGI's systems infrastructures in a manner consistent with legal requirements, professional ethics, the policies established by the administrators of CGI's network and of any external networks that the CGI Partner uses, and must respect the copyrights protecting any software that the CGI Partner also uses. As well, CGI Partners must never use the clients' systems infrastructures, including the clients' software, for any purpose that is not work-related. CGI applies a zero-tolerance policy to any abuse of its systems infrastructures or those of its clients.

At the end of employment, CGI Partners are required to return all CGI property and assets in their possession to their manager or to a designated CGI representative.

Health and safety

CGI is committed to complying with all applicable health and safety laws, policies and regulations in order to provide a safe and healthy work environment to all CGI Partners. In addition, CGI encourages all CGI Partners to report accidents and unsafe conditions, to follow safety and emergency procedures at their facilities, and to actively promote a culture of safety whenever possible.

Accordingly, CGI Partners are expected to observe the following rules:

Drug-free workplace

CGI maintains a drug-free workplace. Accordingly, in the workplace, CGI Partners may not:

- i. Use, sell, or possess illegal drugs;
- ii. Abuse or misuse controlled substances, prescription drugs, or over-the-counter medications; or
- iii. Abuse alcohol.

Restrictions on alcohol use

With the exception of specially authorized CGI functions, no CGI Partner may consume, serve, or be under the influence of alcohol while on CGI property or while performing CGI business.

Alcohol may be served at CGI functions only with the prior approval of a Senior Vice President. In such circumstances, CGI strongly encourages CGI Partners to use discretion, act responsibly, and behave in a manner becoming to the Company. When working in parts of the world where alcohol use or possession is prohibited, CGI Partners must comply with local laws.

1.4. Integrity of books and records and compliance with sound accounting practices

Preparation of books and records

Accuracy and reliability in the preparation of all business records is of critical importance to the decision-making process and to the proper discharge of financial, legal and reporting obligations. All business records, expense accounts, invoices, bills, payroll and CGI Partner records and other reports are to be prepared with care and honesty. False or misleading entries are not permitted in CGI's books and records.

Financial transactions

All financial transactions are to be properly recorded in the books of account and accounting procedures are to be supported by the necessary internal controls. In turn, all books and records of CGI must be available for audit.

In relation to CGI's books and records, CGI Partners must:

- i. not intentionally cause Company documents to be incorrect in any way;
- ii. not create or participate in the creation of any records that are intended to conceal anything that is improper;
- iii. properly and promptly record all disbursements of funds;
- iv. co-operate with internal and external auditors;
- v. report any knowledge of any untruthful or inaccurate statements or records or transactions that do not seem to serve a legitimate commercial purpose; and
- vi. not make unusual financial arrangements with a client or a supplier (such as, over-invoicing or under-invoicing) for payments on their behalf to a party not related to the transaction.

The nature of CGI's business places special importance on the accuracy of time keeping and expense reporting.

Accurate timekeeping

Client billing, CGI Partner compensation, and cost estimating depends on CGI's ability to record and account for CGI Partner time worked accurately.

Accordingly, CGI is committed to accurate total time accounting and reporting within all of its subsidiaries.

All CGI Partners are required to comply with CGI's timekeeping policy and procedures and any applicable contract requirements. CGI Partners must record all time worked daily and submit reports weekly, accurately reflecting all time worked on both direct and indirect projects. Managers are responsible for ensuring that CGI Partners know the correct project code for each project assignment.

Knowingly mischarging your time or falsifying time records violates CGI policy and may also violate the law. No CGI Partner may knowingly charge time inaccurately or knowingly approve mischarging. Similarly, shifting time worked on one project to another project also is strictly prohibited.

To ensure accurate time reporting, CGI Partners must be sure that they understand and carefully follow CGI's timekeeping policy and procedures. CGI Partners must obtain the correct charge code before starting work on any new direct or indirect project. If a CGI Partner has any questions regarding time charging, the question should be raised with their manager. In all cases, CGI Partners must take the steps necessary to ensure that their time records are current, accurate, and complete.

Expense reimbursement

CGI Partners must honestly and accurately report their business-related expenses for reimbursement. A CGI Partner's signature on an expense report certifies that the information provided is complete and accurate and represents a valid business expense.

Breaches

Suspected breaches of the Code which directly or indirectly affect CGI's business must be reported in accordance with section 1.10 below.

To guide CGI Partners, CGI has established the Ethics Reporting Policy, commonly referred to as the "whistleblower policy". This Policy establishes a process by which any person who has direct knowledge of specific incidents of non-compliance can report such incidents anonymously. This process is in place to protect the incident reporter and to ensure confidentiality of the report.

For more information, please refer to CGI's Ethics Reporting Policy available on our enterprise portal.

1.5. Confidential information, intellectual property and privacy

Definitions

"Confidential Information" means:

1. Information about the Company's and/or client's business dealings, development strategies and financial results; products or processes; client lists; vendor lists or purchase prices; cost, pricing, marketing or service strategies; results of research and development work, technical know-how, manufacturing processes, computer software; reports and information related to mergers, acquisitions and divestitures;
2. Information that relates to Intellectual Property and may include, but is not limited to business strategies, product marketing and costing information and information provided by suppliers and competitors. In addition, the way the Company puts publicly-known information together, to achieve a particular result, is often a valuable trade secret;

3. Personal data of any individual, which refers to any information that can identify an individual either directly or indirectly by reference to an identifier or a combination of several factors, as further defined in CGI's Data Privacy Policy.

For example, the following information and documents constitute confidential information or documents of CGI or its clients:

- i. methodologies;
- ii. all information related to: processes, formulas, research and development, products, financials, marketing; names and lists of customers, employees and suppliers as well as related data; computer programs, all software developed or to be developed including flow charts, source and object codes;
- iii. all information related to projects undertaken by the Company whether they are merger and acquisition or divestiture projects or projects related to large client contracts, including all information obtained in due diligence initiatives, whether such information pertains to CGI or to any third party;
- iv. all other information or documents that, if disclosed, could be prejudicial to CGI or its clients; and
- v. personal data of CGI Partners or any third party individual as further defined in CGI's Data Privacy Policy.

Intellectual property

"Intellectual Property" (IP) means patents, copyrights, trademarks, trade secrets and industrial designs, as well as any other proprietary work or invention.

Non-disclosure undertaking

CGI confidential information

During the normal course of business, CGI Partners will have access to confidential information about CGI. In some cases, the information may affect the value of CGI shares. Each CGI Partner must protect from inappropriate use or disclosure all CGI Confidential Information, Intellectual Property, personal data or any non-public information. CGI Confidential Information could include information from other CGI Partners or information acquired from outside sources, sometimes under obligations of secrecy. CGI Partners are expected to use such information exclusively for business purposes and this information must not be disclosed externally, including to a spouse, partner or relative, without the approval of a CGI Partner's manager.

Client confidential information

Just as CGI Partners must protect Confidential Information, Intellectual Property and personal data collected, stored and processed by CGI, they must also protect against unauthorized use or disclosure client's business information to which we have access. Unless a CGI Partner has the client's express authorization, he or she should never reveal any information that could harm the client's interests and should never use any information that he or she obtains in the course of a project or assignment for any purpose other than that project or assignment. If the client informs us of restrictions to the distribution of certain information within its own organization, the CGI Partner must comply with those restrictions as well.

CGI Partner confidential information

Subject to applicable law, CGI collects and maintains personal information relating to its CGI Partners, including medical and benefits information. Access to such information is restricted to CGI personnel on a need-to-know basis. They must ensure that this information is not disclosed in violation of CGI's policies and practices. Personal information is released to outside parties only with the CGI Partner's approval, except to satisfy the requirements considered by CGI to be appropriate for legal reasons.

Suppliers and partners confidential information

All non-public information on CGI suppliers and partners to which we have access is also confidential and must not be disclosed without the express consent of the persons concerned.

Third party agreements

In cases where information or records are obtained under an agreement with a third party, such as software licenses or technology purchases, CGI Partners must ensure that the provisions of such agreements are strictly adhered to so that CGI will not be deemed to be in default. Unauthorized disclosure or use of information or records associated with these agreements could expose the CGI Partner involved and/or CGI to serious consequences.

Disclosure policy

Privileged or material information

Privileged or material undisclosed information about CGI or other public companies may not be used as a basis for trading in CGI securities, or the securities of any other company in respect of which CGI or its CGI Partners, consultants or advisers are in possession of such information. For this purpose, CGI has an established policy regarding the use of insider information and trading in securities. This policy is entitled "Insider Trading and Blackout Periods Policy" which extends to all directors, officers and CGI Partners. The Insider Trading and Blackout Periods Policy is designed to prevent improper trading in the securities of the Company and the improper communication of privileged or material undisclosed information. In addition, this Policy is aimed at preventing directors, officers and CGI Partners from engaging in activities that, although not illegal, may expose them or the Company to potential reputational risk.

CGI's Policy on Timely Disclosure of Material Information cover the disclosure of information with a material impact, defined as any information that, if disclosed to a potential investor, could affect his or her perception of the value of the Company as an investment. Because CGI is a publicly traded company, any information that may have a material impact on CGI's results or on the perception of the value of the stock must be communicated in accordance with CGI's "Policy on Timely Disclosure of Material Information." If a CGI Partner thinks that he or she is in possession of a piece of information that is not known to management and may have a material impact on the Company, the CGI Partner must communicate it immediately to either the Executive Chair of the Board, the Co-Chair of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Legal Officer, or the Chief Financial Officer, without divulging it to anyone else.

Intellectual property

In the course of their duties, CGI Partners may develop or create new designs, inventions, systems or processes, products or documents. When these achievements have been made as a direct result of a CGI Partner’s employment with the Company and through use of CGI's resources, they belong to CGI. Moreover, CGI is free to use this work as it so wishes and CGI Partners cannot use nor divulge, publish or otherwise disseminate it without prior written consent from CGI. Upon request, CGI Partners will execute documents made necessary to confirm or complete the assignment of rights to CGI.

Data privacy

CGI must comply with industry practices and applicable laws when collecting, maintaining, processing or disclosing personal data of clients, CGI Partners and third parties. Therefore, any such activities related to personal data must be performed by CGI and its CGI Partners in accordance with CGI’s Data Privacy Policy, processes and standards.

For more information, please refer to CGI’s Data Privacy Policy available on our enterprise portal.

1.6. Conflicts of interest

Definitions

CGI Partners must avoid any actual or apparent conflicts of interest and should never engage in any conduct which is, or could potentially be, harmful to CGI or its reputation. A conflict of interest exists when a CGI Partner’s personal interests, activities or financial affairs may conflict with those of CGI or its clients, or may adversely influence the CGI Partner’s judgement in the performance of duties.

Particular caution should be taken when dealing with initiatives involving contracts with any governmental or quasi-governmental agency.

Guidelines

The following guidelines provide guidance for CGI Partners to avoid situations, which are or may appear to be in conflict with their responsibility to act in the best interest of the Company.

- Financial interests - A conflict of interest exists when a CGI Partner who is able to influence business with CGI (or family or a close personal friend of such CGI Partner) owns, directly or indirectly, a beneficial interest in an organization which is a competitor of CGI, or which has current or prospective business as a supplier, customer or contractor with CGI. This does not include the situation where the financial interest in question consists of shares, bonds or other securities of a company listed on a securities exchange and where the amount of this interest is less than one percent of the value of the class of security involved.
- Outside work - When a CGI Partner, directly or indirectly, acts as a director, officer, employee, consultant or agent of an organization that is a competitor of CGI, or which has current or prospective business as a supplier, customer or contractor with CGI, there is a conflict of interest. Similarly, a conflict of interest may exist when a CGI Partner undertakes to engage in an independent business venture or to perform work or services for another entity should that activity prevent such CGI Partner from devoting the time and effort to the conduct of CGI's business, which his or her position requires.
- Gifts or favors - A conflict of interest will arise when a CGI Partner, either directly or indirectly, solicits or accepts any gift or favor from any person or organization which is a competitor of CGI, or which has current or prospective business with CGI as a customer, supplier, partner or contractor. For this purpose, a "gift" or "favor" includes any gratuitous service, loan, discount, money or article of value. It does not include articles of nominal value normally used for sales promotion purposes, ordinary and reasonable business meals and entertainment expenses if they have a clear business purpose, are permitted under the anti-corruption laws and local laws, conform to generally accepted local customs and are received in a sporadic manner.
- Commissions - CGI or its CGI Partners will never accept any commissions from a third-party vendor when recommending software, hardware or any equipment to a client as part of a service agreement.
- Trading with CGI - A conflict of interest may exist when a CGI Partner is directly or indirectly a party to a transaction with CGI.
- Misappropriation of business opportunities - A conflict of interest will exist when a CGI Partner, without the knowledge and consent of CGI, appropriates for his or her own use, or that of another person or organization, the benefit of any business venture, opportunity or potential opportunity about which the CGI Partner may have learned or that he or she may have developed during the course of his or her employment.
- Bribes - Neither CGI nor its CGI Partners will pay bribes to clients or client representatives to obtain business from them. Refer to CGI's Anti-Corruption Policy under Section 3 below for further information on this topic.
- Former employees of customers - Hiring or retaining the services of former employees of customers, whether in the private or public sector (including quasi-government agencies), may result in actual or perceived conflicts of interest. Accordingly, any such person may not: (i) for a period of two years from the termination of his or her employment with a former customer be assigned to work on, or in any way contribute to, a CGI project or contract that is linked to his or her former functions, unless the customer's prior written consent is obtained and the hire is not prohibited by any code of ethics or other restrictions or undertakings applicable to such person; and (ii) disclose to any CGI Partner any confidential information such person obtained during the course of his or her former functions with the customer.

- Personal relationships – An actual, potential or perceived conflict of interest may arise if a personal relationship can affect or influence a CGI Partner's judgment or objectivity in the course of his or her professional responsibilities.

To avoid conflicts of interest, CGI Partners must withdraw namely from:

1. Employment decisions (e.g. initial employment or rehire, promotion, salary, performance appraisals, work assignments or other terms and conditions of employment) applicable to person(s) with whom the personal relationship exists; and
2. Business decisions when CGI engages with an individual, a supplier or a third party with whom the CGI Partner has a personal relationship.

Reporting

Any actual, potential or perceived conflict of interest must be disclosed, as soon as it arises, to the CGI Partner's management chain or leadership team, Human Resources, Ethics or Legal Departments¹.

If deemed necessary, appropriate measures must be implemented in order to mitigate risks for all CGI stakeholders. Such measures must be documented and their implementation monitored.

¹ Executive Officers must disclose any actual, potential or perceived conflict of interest in accordance to section 2 of the Code of Ethics.

1.7. Laws, statutes and regulations

Compliance with the law

It is CGI's policy to comply, not merely with the letter, but also with the spirit of the law. CGI is required to maintain compliance with various acts, statutes and regulations governing activities in the jurisdictions in which it carries on business and expects CGI Partners acting on its behalf to do likewise. CGI Partners are also expected to report any situation of concern as described in section 1.10 below or to the CGI Legal Department.

Guidelines for compliance

This Code does not seek to provide legal guidance for all laws, statutes and regulations that impact CGI's activities. Specialized resources - legal, tax, environmental, government relations, and human resources - are available within CGI for that purpose. There are, however, several items of legislation that warrant specific mention. These are listed below along with some general guidelines for compliance.

Environmental laws

CGI is committed to preserving and enhancing the environment in the communities where its various businesses operate through responsible and environmentally oriented operating practices. CGI Partners are encouraged to participate in undertakings geared to improving the environment in both their workplace and their community.

Human rights legislation

Every person has the right to equal treatment with respect to employment and the right to be free of discrimination because of race, ancestry, place of origin, color, ethnic origin, citizenship, religion, sex, sexual orientation, age, pregnancy, record of offences, marital status, social conditions, political beliefs, language, veteran status (U.S. only), family status, disability or means used to overcome a disability.

The following are CGI's policies on equal employment opportunity, anti-harassment and anti-discrimination and modern slavery as well as the procedure for reporting any breach or violation of these policies:

i. Equal employment opportunity - CGI is committed to treating all people fairly and equitably, without discrimination. The company has established a program to ensure that groups, which are often subject to discrimination, are equitably represented within CGI and to eliminate any employment rules and practices that could be discriminatory. CGI regards diversity among its CGI Partners as a priceless resource and one which enables the Company to work harmoniously with clients from around the world.

ii. Anti-harassment and anti-discrimination policies - CGI recognizes that everyone has the right to work in an environment free of sexual, psychological and racial harassment. CGI will do everything in its power to prevent its CGI Partners from becoming victims of such harassment. CGI defines sexual, psychological or racial harassment as any behavior, in the form of words, gestures, or actions, generally repeated, that has undesired sexual, psychological or racial connotations, that has a negative impact on a person's dignity or physical or psychological integrity, or that results in that person being subjected to unfavorable working conditions or dismissal.

CGI will prevent any form of harassment or discrimination against job candidates and CGI Partners on any of the grounds mentioned above, whether during the hiring process or during employment. This commitment applies to such areas as training, performance assessment, promotions, transfers, layoffs, remuneration and all other employment practices and working conditions.

All CGI managers are personally accountable for enforcing this policy and must make every effort to prevent discriminatory or harassing behavior and to intervene immediately if they observe a problem or if a problem is reported to them.

In their professional capacity, all CGI Partners must refrain from any form of harassment or discrimination against anyone, including suppliers, customers and constructors.

iii. Procedure for reporting discrimination or harassment - Any CGI Partner who feels discriminated against or harassed can and should, in all confidence and without fear of reprisal, personally report the facts through the reporting channels described in section 1.10.

The facts will be examined carefully. Neither the name of the person reporting the facts nor the circumstances surrounding them will be disclosed, unless such disclosure is necessary for an investigation or disciplinary action. Any disciplinary action will be proportional to the seriousness of the behavior concerned. CGI will also provide appropriate assistance to any CGI Partner who is a victim of discrimination or harassment. In addition, retaliation against persons who make complaints of harassment, witness harassment, offer testimony or are otherwise involved in the investigation of harassment complaints will not be tolerated.

iv. Modern slavery - CGI recognizes that slavery is both illegal and unacceptable. As a services organization in which most of our CGI Partners are highly skilled and directly employed by CGI, we consider the risk of modern slavery within CGI's own organization to be low. However, CGI has implemented an additional procurement process to mitigate the risk of slavery in our supply chain. We expect all third parties with whom we work to comply with anti-human trafficking and anti-slavery legislation. To that end, CGI's Third Party Code of Ethics aims to provide suppliers with the appropriate guidance to make informed business decisions while working with CGI.

Competition act

CGI is required to make its own decisions on the basis of its best interest and must do so independent of agreements or understandings with competitors. The Competition Act (Canada) or corresponding provisions of foreign legislation in matters of competition prohibit certain arrangements or agreements with others regarding product prices, terms of sale, division of markets, and allocation of customers or other practices that restrain competition. It is the responsibility of each manager to comply with the letter and spirit of all competition laws as they apply to CGI.

Questions concerning competition-sensitive issues must be addressed to ethics@cgi.com or the CGI Legal Department.

Securities laws and insider trading

CGI Partners are prohibited from trading in CGI securities while in possession of Privileged Information, subject to the limited exceptions under applicable laws and regulations. They are also prohibited from trading in another public company's securities while in possession of Privileged Information regarding that public company gained during the course of the CGI Partner's work. CGI Partners are prohibited from disclosing Privileged Information to, or "tipping", another party or recommending that another party trade in CGI securities or another public company's securities while they have knowledge of Privileged Information. Tipping is a violation of laws and regulations even if the person disclosing the information does not personally make a trade or otherwise benefit from disclosing the information.

"Privileged Information" is information that has not been disclosed to the public and could affect the decision of a reasonable investor, as well as any fact or any change in business, operations or capital that would reasonably be expected to have a significant effect on the market price or value of any security and which has not been generally disclosed. CGI has adopted the "Insider Trading and Blackout Periods Policy" which extends to all directors, officers and CGI Partners.

Export and import laws

CGI Partners may find themselves dealing with goods or services that are the subject of export or import restrictions, such as, for example, information or technology that has military or state security applications. CGI Partners who deal with controlled goods and services must comply with the CGI policies and procedures designed to ensure that the controls are respected.

Laws that protect classified information

In the normal course of CGI's business with government clients, our CGI Partners may be required to hold government security clearances and they may have access to information that is classified or facilities that are restricted. CGI Partners must comply with the letter and with the spirit of the laws, rules and regulations that apply to classified information and facilities that are restricted.

Whether a CGI Partner holds a security clearance or not, CGI Partners must not seek access to classified information or restricted facilities unless that access is required in order to allow them to carry out their assigned tasks. CGI Partners must not accept access to, retain, or otherwise deal with classified information, or enter restricted facilities, unless they hold a current and valid security clearance that entitles them to have the appropriate degree of access. If there is any doubt about whether information is classified or whether facilities are restricted, about the restrictions that may apply to information or facilities, or whether the CGI Partner's security clearance is adequate in the circumstances, the CGI Partner must first consult with the CGI security officer who has the authority to advise the CGI Partner.

1.8. Investor and media relations

Authorized spokespersons

Initiatives relating to investor and media communications are the responsibility of CGI's authorized spokespersons. Therefore, CGI Partners are not allowed to make any public statement about CGI without first obtaining the authorization of such authorized spokespersons.

1.9. Community activities and political and public contributions

As a global organization conducting business throughout the world, CGI is committed to the charitable donation of funds and services for humanitarian and other social needs, particularly in cases of emergencies or disasters.

Monetary and other contributions to charities, social projects and funds, including schools, educational funds and infrastructure projects, should occur outside of work hours and be handled with caution as they can be conduits for corrupt payments. In order to minimize this risk, CGI requires appropriate due diligence be conducted into such charities and projects prior to the approval of any charitable contributions made on its behalf. No contributions of any kind may be made on CGI's behalf to any political party, candidate or campaign. In no event shall any charitable or political donations be made for the purpose of gaining any improper business advantage.

Questions to consider when making charitable payments:

1. Is the organization or body receiving the payment duly registered and does it otherwise comply with applicable law?
2. Is the organization or body, including its Board of directors and other representatives, free of any political or other undue influence?
3. What is the purpose of the payment?
4. Is the payment consistent with CGI's internal guidelines on charitable giving?
5. Is the payment at the request of a foreign official?
6. Is a foreign official associated with the charity and, if so, can the foreign official make decisions regarding CGI's business in that country?
7. Is the payment conditioned on receiving business or other benefits?

1.10. Compliance with the Code

Management responsibilities

CGI's managers have a special duty to be role models of appropriate business conduct and to see that the principles and policies of this Code and of other CGI guidelines and policies referred to in this Code are upheld. This means:

i. Copy of the Code - Ensuring that all CGI partners have a copy of the Code, and that they understand and comply with its provisions.

ii. Assistance - Offering assistance and explanations to any CGI Partner who has questions, doubts or is in a difficult situation. Managers are also required to counsel CGI Partners promptly when their conduct or behavior is inconsistent with the Code.

iii. Enforcement - Taking prompt and decisive action when a violation of the Code has occurred, in consultation with the CGI Legal Department. If a manager knows a CGI Partner is contemplating a prohibited action and does nothing, the manager will be held responsible along with the CGI Partner.

CGI Partner responsibilities

Each CGI Partner is accountable for observing the rules of conduct that are normally accepted as standard in a business enterprise. In addition, they must abide by the following:

i. Compliance - CGI Partners are expected to comply with the Code and all policies and procedures of the company as well as to actively promote and support CGI's values.

ii. Preventing - CGI Partners should take all necessary steps to prevent a Code violation.

iii. Reporting - CGI Partners must promptly report any non-compliance to this Code of which we become aware, including but not limited to:

- any suspected violations of the Code and/or of CGI policies;
- any known or suspected violation of applicable laws, rules or regulations; or
- any observed instances of misconduct or pressure to compromise our ethical standards.

Reports can be made openly, confidentially and/or anonymously as allowable by law, via any of the following reporting channels:

- Any manager or any other individual in the management chain or the leadership team;
- Any CGI Partner of the CGI HR Department or Legal team;
- Any officer of CGI, especially when mandated by the Codes;
- Our ethics mailbox (ethics@cgi.com); or
- Our Ethics Hotline

The Ethics Hotline is an incident reporting system managed by an independent third party mandated by CGI to ensure anonymity of all incident reporters should they chose to remain anonymous, and confidentiality of all reports submitted.

Through this channel, reports may be submitted by phone or online:

- By phone: Call (800) 461-9330
- Online: Click here to file a report. Please note that you will leave the Portal and be directed to an external Web site.

To guide CGI Partners, CGI has established the Ethics Reporting Policy, commonly referred to as the “whistleblower policy”. This Policy establishes a process by which any person who has direct knowledge of specific incidents of non-compliance can report such incidents anonymously. This process is in place to protect the incident reporter and to ensure confidentiality of the report.

For more information, please refer to CGI’s Ethics Reporting Policy available on our enterprise portal.

iv. Zero tolerance for retaliation - CGI has zero tolerance for retaliation against anyone who reports incidents in good faith.

Retaliation is abusive, punishing behavior by managers and coworkers toward CGI Partners who, in good faith, question established practices, report misconduct or participate in investigations.

CGI Partners who believe they have experienced retaliation are expected to report it just as any other violation would be reported. There are serious consequences for retaliation, up to and including dismissal.

v. Consequences - Unethical behavior, violations of this Code and of CGI's other guidelines and policies, as well as withholding information during the course of an investigation regarding a possible violation of the Code, may result in disciplinary action which will be commensurate with the seriousness of the behavior. Such action could include termination as well as civil or criminal action.

1.11. Administration of the Code

Periodic review

Responsibility for the periodic review and revision of the Code lies with CGI's Corporate Governance Committee.

Monitoring compliance

The Board of Directors of CGI will monitor compliance with the Code and will be responsible for the granting of any waivers from compliance with the Code for directors and officers of CGI. The Corporate Secretary of CGI shall, when deemed appropriate, make reports to the Board of Directors of CGI with respect to compliance with this Code.

Questions

Questions concerning this Code should be referred to a CGI Partner's manager who, when warranted, shall report to CGI's Corporate Secretary.

Back to top

2. Executive Code of Conduct

This Executive Code of Conduct (the "Code") is part of the commitment of CGI Inc. ("CGI") to ethical business conduct and practices. This Code reflects CGI's firm commitment, not only to adherence to the law, but also to the highest standards of ethical conduct.

This Code specifically covers CGI's principal executive officer, principal financial officer, principal accounting officer or controller, or other persons performing similar functions (collectively, the "officers") and supplements the Code of Ethics and Business Conduct.

2.1. Honest and ethical conduct

Respect and integrity

The officers of CGI are its ambassadors. They must always behave responsibly and demonstrate courtesy, honesty, civility and respect for all other employees of CGI, for its clients and for its suppliers.

Ethics

Supporting CGI's objectives, officers in performing their duties will carry out their responsibilities at all times in a way that promotes ethics in their leadership. The officers will:

- i. Undertake their responsibilities in a vigilant manner in the interests of CGI and to avoid any real or perceived impression of personal advantage;
- ii. Advance CGI's legitimate interests when the opportunity arises at all times ahead of their own interests;
- iii. Proactively promote ethical behavior among subordinates and peers; and
- iv. Use corporate assets and resources in a responsible and fair manner, having regard for the interests of CGI.

Back to top

2.2. Full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable disclosure

Annual and quarterly reports

Each officer shall read each annual or quarterly report filed or submitted under the applicable securities laws and satisfy himself or herself that the report does not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact that is necessary in order for the statements made not to be misleading, in light of the circumstances in which such statements were made.

Financial statements

Each officer shall satisfy himself or herself that the financial statements, and other financial information included in the report, fairly present in all material respects the financial condition and results of operations of CGI as of, and for, the periods presented in the report.

Reports to securities regulators

Officers shall perform their responsibilities with a view to causing periodic reports filed with securities regulators to contain information which is accurate, complete, fair and understandable and to be filed in a timely fashion.

Reporting concerns and complaints

An officer who believes it is necessary or appropriate to do so can refer concerns about the quality and scope of financial or related reporting requirements to the Chair of the Audit Committee. Any officer who receives a bona fide material complaint about financial reporting from any employee shall report such complaints to the Audit Committee. Any officer who has disclosed such concerns in good faith shall not face any form of retribution.

2.3. Compliance with laws, rules and regulations

The officers are cognizant of their leadership roles within the organization and the importance of compliance with the letter and spirit of applicable laws, rules and regulations relating to financial and related reporting.

2.4. Compliance with the Code

General responsibilities

Officers have a special duty to be role models of appropriate business conduct and see that the principles and policies of this Code and other CGI guidelines and policies are upheld.

Reporting

Any violation or suspected violation of the Code should be personally reported by an officer to the Executive Chair of the Board, the Co-Chair of the Board, Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer or Chief Legal Officer.

Accountability

Non-compliance with this Code in every respect by an officer will be a matter for consideration and review by the Board of Directors of CGI.

3. CGI Anti-Corruption Policy

Policy statement

CGI is committed to conducting its activities free from the illegal and improper influence of bribery and to ensuring compliance with all anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws and regulations that may be applicable to its business world- wide (collectively, "Anti-Corruption Laws"). It is essential that CGI Partners, officers, and directors, as well as all third parties who act on behalf of CGI, comply at all times with the letter and the spirit of all Anti-Corruption Laws.

Overview

Bribery is offering, giving, receiving, or soliciting any item of value to improperly influence the actions of a person in order to obtain or retain business or an unfair advantage in the conduct of business; or to induce or reward improper conduct. "Kickback" is another term for bribery. Bribery can arise in both the public and the private sphere. It can take place directly or indirectly (e.g. through a Third Party). It can take many forms. Anti- Corruption Laws require companies like CGI to have proactive measures to prevent, detect, and address bribery and corrupt practices.

There are many reasons to care about bribery and corruption.

Bribery and corruption are crimes punishable by fines and/or imprisonment. CGI officers, directors and CGI Partners, as well as Third Parties, must not engage in any form of bribery or corruption. Whenever CGI Partners are asked to approve or make a payment, they must ensure that they fully understand the reason for the payment and that the payment is legitimate. If in doubt, they should not make or agree to make the payment and contact the CGI Legal Department or ethics@cgi.com for guidance.

Bribery and corruption have been identified as key factors that limit economic growth and contribute to inequality. By wrongfully benefiting a few individuals, they limit competition, undermine innovation, and corrupt societies.

Bribery is also detrimental to our business - studies show that companies where bribery is condoned have lower levels of productivity and lower employee morale. Put simply, it is unethical and against CGI's values.

Individuals and companies can face civil and criminal charges resulting in large fines, imprisonment, and suspension or debarment from government contract processes. Failure to comply puts CGI Partners, their colleagues, and CGI at risk. This could have a very serious impact on CGI Partners, and CGI's business and reputation.

Key principles

3.1. Bribes must not be offered or accepted

CGI prohibits the offering, giving, receiving, or soliciting of any item of value to improperly influence the actions of a person in order to obtain or retain business or an unfair advantage in the conduct of business; or to induce or reward improper conduct. "Items of value" can include:

- i. payments of money;
- ii. extension of credit or loans;
- iii. travel and accommodations expenses;
- iv. gifts, meals, and entertainment;
- v. political contributions and charitable donations;
- vi. free use of company services, facilities or property;
- vii. favors that are of value to a recipient (e.g., offering a job to a CGI Partner of a person's family); or
- viii. anything else of value.

Bribery and corruption can take many forms. Red flags can include cash payments or gifts to individuals or family of CGI Partners; inflated commissions; inflated invoices; fake consultancy agreements; unauthorized rebates; political or charitable donations; and excessive payment of travel expenses for inappropriate non-business related travel. In some cases, simply offering an inducement is unlawful, even if not accepted. This Policy is intended to help you understand how to apply this prohibition in our business. It explores the areas identified above in more depth.

3.2. Understanding CGI Policies and identifying risks

The first step in compliance is to understand our Code of Ethics, including this Policy, and how it impacts your responsibilities on a day-to-day basis. Knowing what steps to take to prevent risk and to ensure the proper handling of any issues relating to bribery and corruption is essential to compliance.

3.3. Respond

CGI will assess bribery and corruption risks on an ongoing basis within each Strategic Business Unit. CGI will implement mitigation plans and training programs as part of its system of internal controls. CGI will also monitor compliance at the local level to ensure that this Policy is being followed by all CGI Partners. You should always complete all required training and cooperate with ongoing monitoring.

3.4. Document and report

All documentation of financial transactions must be accurate and complete. You should always document your transactions in compliance with the Code of Ethics, and report any issues arising under this Policy that you become aware of as required by CGI's Ethics Reporting Policy. Questions under this Policy can be addressed to ethics@cgi.com.

Areas of focus

CGI has established procedures and guidelines to translate this Policy and our principles into practice. This section outlines the general requirements and procedures for the following risk areas:

A. Gifts

POLICY

Though gifts are recognized as appropriate ways of developing business relationships and promoting the CGI brand, we must ensure that the offering, solicitation and receipt of gifts does not give rise to even an appearance of impropriety. Particular vigilance must be exercised where gifts are extended to Government Officials.

All gifts offered by CGI must:

- i. be permitted under local law and the Anti-Corruption Laws and conform to generally accepted local customs;
- ii. have a clear business purpose which is directly related to CGI's commercial objectives;
- iii. be reasonable in value and not appear lavish or extravagant; and
- iv. not be intended to create any obligation on behalf of the recipient or to result in CGI receiving any favour or advantage in return.

Typically, small gifts containing the CGI logo (such as coffee mugs, t-shirts, pens, and the like) offered sporadically to persons at CGI promotional events (such as trade shows) will not violate this Policy as long as they are not excessive.

A chart attached as Appendix A to this Policy provides limits on gifts to Government Officials allowed under the laws of various jurisdictions. All CGI Partners must adhere to these limits when offering gifts to Government Officials. When dealing with private parties, these limits should also be used as guidelines for determining if the value of a gift is reasonable. You should consult with the CGI Legal Department if you have any questions related to offering any gifts to Government Officials to ensure that they comply with local laws and the Anti-Corruption Laws. You can also direct inquiries to ethics@cgi.com.

FULL TRANSPARENCY REQUIRED

If offering or accepting a gift meets these standards, it must be made or accepted in a fully transparent way. Gifts which are excessive, frequent, or intended to create an obligation on the part of the recipient are strictly prohibited.

HOW WE ENSURE COMPLIANCE

No reimbursement or payment for any gifts offered by a CGI Partner that otherwise comply with this Policy will be made without adequate approvals in compliance with the Operations Management Framework and supporting documentation / receipts.

RED FLAGS

Examples of common “red flags” that could indicate bribery or corruption include the following:

- i. Gifts that would be illegal under local or Anti-Corruption Laws;
- ii. Gifts to or from parties engaged in a public tender or competitive bidding process;
- iii. Any gift of cash or cash equivalents, or securities;
- iv. Any gift where something is expected in return;
- v. Any gift that appears excessive based on common sense standards or local custom;
- vi. Any gift that is paid for personally.

Back to top

B. Hospitality, travel, entertainment and meals

POLICY

As with gifts, providing hospitality, travel, entertainment, and meals (collectively, “Hospitality”) to any person may be a violation of the law if they are excessive, unreasonable, or do not have a valid business purpose. The same principle applies to soliciting or receiving Hospitality from existing or potential clients. CGI prohibits payment or reimbursement of expenses for any person to attend site visits or other CGI business events unless the expenses are reasonable, reflect actual costs incurred, directly relate to CGI business, and are permissible under local law and custom. CGI discourages the providing of Hospitality to the family of CGI Partners or guests of clients unless a clear business purpose for the Hospitality can be demonstrated.

HOSPITALITY OFFERED BY OR TO CGI PARTNERS

All Hospitality offered by or to CGI Partners must meet these requirements:

- i. The Hospitality must be permitted under local law and the Anti-Corruption Laws and conform to generally accepted local customs;
- ii. The host offering the Hospitality must be present;
- iii. The purpose is to hold a genuine business discussion or foster better business relations and do not develop any form of obligation;
- iv. The Hospitality is openly offered and not solicited; and
- v. The Hospitality is not frequent or excessive, and is reasonable in value, so as to not raise questions of impropriety.

As with gifts, the chart in Appendix A identifies permissible limits on Hospitality for Government Officials in specific jurisdictions. All CGI Partners must adhere to these guidelines when providing Hospitality to Government Officials. When dealing with private parties, these limits should also be used as guidelines for determining if the value of any Hospitality is reasonable.

FULL TRANSPARENCY REQUIRED

If offering or receiving Hospitality meets these standards, it must be made or accepted in a fully transparent way. Hospitality which is excessive, frequent, or intended to create an obligation on the part of the recipient is strictly prohibited.

HOW WE ENSURE COMPLIANCE

Approval for the payment or reimbursement of bona fide and actual Hospitality expenses for clients, potential clients, and Government Officials must be obtained from the CGI Legal Department prior to offering such a payment or reimbursement. All travel expenses must comply with the CGI Travel Policy. Expenses related to Hospitality offered by CGI must be submitted and approved in accordance with CGI expense reporting guidelines so that the expenses are properly categorized and auditable.

RED FLAGS

Examples of common “red flags” that could indicate bribery or corruption include the following:

- i. Hospitality expenses for persons for which there is not a legitimate business purpose;
- ii. Hospitality expenses for family of CGI Partners of any person;
- iii. Hospitality expenses submitted on behalf of non-CGI Partners (as opposed to being paid by CGI directly);
- iv. Payment for flights and accommodations for potential or existing CGI clients to meet with CGI representatives when the CGI representatives could just as easily have met with the clients at the client’s site;
- v. Use of travel agencies not approved by CGI for arranging or paying for Hospitality of Government Officials.

Back to top

C. Third parties

POLICY

Most Anti-Corruption Laws impose liability on companies which become involved in direct or indirect bribery. This means that CGI may incur liability where a Third Party engaged to represent or provide a service to, or on behalf of, CGI makes an improper payment or otherwise engages in improper conduct in the course of its work for CGI. This exposure may arise notwithstanding that the payment or conduct in question is prohibited by CGI and/or that CGI had no knowledge of this payment. All CGI dealings with Third Parties must be carried out with the highest degree of integrity, visibility, and in compliance with all relevant laws and regulations.

HOW WE ENSURE COMPLIANCE

Professional integrity is a prerequisite for the selection and retention of Third Parties by CGI. Prior to the retention of any Third Party, the CGI Partners responsible for such retention must ensure that appropriate due diligence is conducted on such Third Party and any compliance "red flags" that are identified are properly addressed. In certain circumstances, Third Parties will receive compliance training, and all Third Parties are subject to CGI's monitoring requirements and audit to ensure compliance with Anti-Corruption Laws and this Policy. Contracts with Third Parties must, where appropriate, contain appropriate terms to mitigate corruption risks.

CGI's approach to retaining, training and monitoring Third Parties is "risk-based", which takes into account a number of factors, including the corruption risk in the country in which the Third Party conducts its activities for CGI, the nature of CGI's relationship with the Third Party, the reputation and notoriety of the Third Party and the value and prospects of CGI's relationship with the Third Party. In higher risk situations, enhanced due diligence, training and monitoring, including the Third Party's agreement to comply with CGI's Third-Party Code of Ethics, will be required in accordance with procedures and protocols to be issued by the CGI Legal Department.

RED FLAGS

Examples of common “red flags” that could indicate bribery or corruption include the following:

- i. Any commission to third-party representatives or consultants;
- ii. Third-party “consulting agreements” that include only vaguely described services;
- iii. Family, business, or other “special” ties with government or political officials;
- iv. Reputation for violating local law or company policy;
- v. Negative press, rumors, allegations or sanctions;
- vi. Requests from government officials or clients to engage or hire specific third parties;
- vii. Lack of credentials for the nature of the work being performed by the third party;
- viii. Request to make payment to an entity located in an off-shore tax haven;
- ix. Lack of an office or established place of business, or a shell-company incorporated in an offshore jurisdiction;
- x. Requests for payment of non-contracted amounts, or lack of documentation for services performed;
- xi. Convoluted or complex payment requests (such as payments to third parties or to accounts in other countries, requests for payments in cash, payments without invoices or complete receipts, or requests for up-front payments);
- xii. Refusal to provide reasonable information requested or discovery of information inconsistent with what was previously disclosed;

- xiii. Requests for political or charitable contributions or other favors as a way of influencing official action;
- xiv. Requests for specific sums of money to “fix” problems or “make them go away.”

Back to top

D. Facilitation payments

POLICY

“Facilitation Payments” are payments made to secure, facilitate or speed-up routine, non-discretionary government actions (e.g. payments for speeding up customs clearance, loading and unloading cargo or scheduling government inspections or issuing government licenses or port documentation). CGI regards Facilitation Payments to be a form of corruption and strictly prohibits them.

HOW WE ENSURE COMPLIANCE

CGI Partners who are requested to make a facilitation payment should make a report to ethics@cgi.com immediately. In addition, any CGI Partner that makes a payment that could reasonably be misunderstood as a Facilitation Payment should make a report to ethics@cgi.com and ensure that the payment transaction is completely and accurately documented in CGI’s books and records.

RED FLAGS

Examples of common “red flags” that could indicate bribery or corruption include the following:

- i. Payments to obtain permits, licenses, or work orders to which you are already entitled;
- ii. Payments to receive police protection or mail pickup/delivery;
- iii. Payments to receive phone service or water/power supply;
- iv. Payments to schedule inspections or transit of goods across border controls.

Back to top

E. Anti-money laundering

Money laundering is the process by which one conceals the existence of an illegal source of income and then disguises that income to make it appear legitimate. Use by CGI of proceeds tainted by illegality can give rise to liability in the countries in which CGI operates. CGI Partners should make a report pursuant to the Ethics Reporting Policy or to ethics@cgi.com if they become aware of suspicious circumstances leading them to believe that any transaction might involve the payment or the receipt of proceeds of any unlawful activity.

RED FLAGS

Examples of common "red flags" that could indicate money laundering include the following:

- i. Refusal to disclose the source of funds or the beneficial ownership of funds;
- ii. Uncertain qualifications of a participant for a proposed transaction; for example, if the principal business of such participant appears to be unrelated to such transaction;
- iii. Cash payments;
- iv. Payments to and from tax haven jurisdictions;
- v. Complicated payment and transaction structures, including the use of multiple parties in transactions where payments and shipments are made to or from third parties which are not parties to the underlying contract;
- vi. Criminal connections of transaction participants.

Training and monitoring

In furtherance of CGI's commitment to compliance with the law, this Anti-Corruption Policy is communicated to all CGI directors, officers, CGI Partners and Third Parties, and is available on the CGI enterprise portal.

Responsibility for compliance with this Policy, including the duty to seek guidance when in doubt, rests with the CGI Partners or relevant Third Parties.

CGI will provide regular training on this Policy. When necessary, specialized training will be provided to CGI Partners, directors and/or officers with significant compliance responsibilities or in high risk functions.

CGI will audit and monitor compliance with this Policy on an ongoing basis.

Reporting of suspected violations

Subject to applicable law, any suspected breaches of this Policy which directly or indirectly affect CGI's business must be reported consistent with CGI's Ethics Reporting Policy. The process in place protects the incident reporter and ensures the confidentiality of the report. There will be no retaliation for making a report.

For more information, please refer to CGI’s Ethics Reporting Policy available on our enterprise portal.

Consequences of misconduct

The consequences of violating applicable Anti-Corruption Laws are potentially very serious for CGI and individual CGI Partners. CGI will vigorously enforce compliance with this Policy. Violations may result in disciplinary action, including in serious cases, termination of employment. Violations may also result in criminal and civil exposure for CGI and any individuals involved, including imprisonment, fines and damages actions, and can cause significant damage to CGI's reputation in the market place. CGI may also face suspension and disbarment from public sector contracts as a result of violations by CGI Partners.

Third Parties who breach the CGI Third Party Code of Ethics may also be subject to prosecution and severe penalties, including the termination of their contract with CGI.

Questions about this Policy

Questions about the application of this Policy to specific circumstances can be directed to ethics@cgi.com. Questions can also be directed to your local CGI Legal Department or Human Resources representative.
